AUSTRALIA'S CHANGING FORESTS

1. Introduction
Explore how Australia's forests are distributed, what type of forest we have, and how vegetation has changed over time.

FORESTS IN AUSTRALIA (Total & Type)

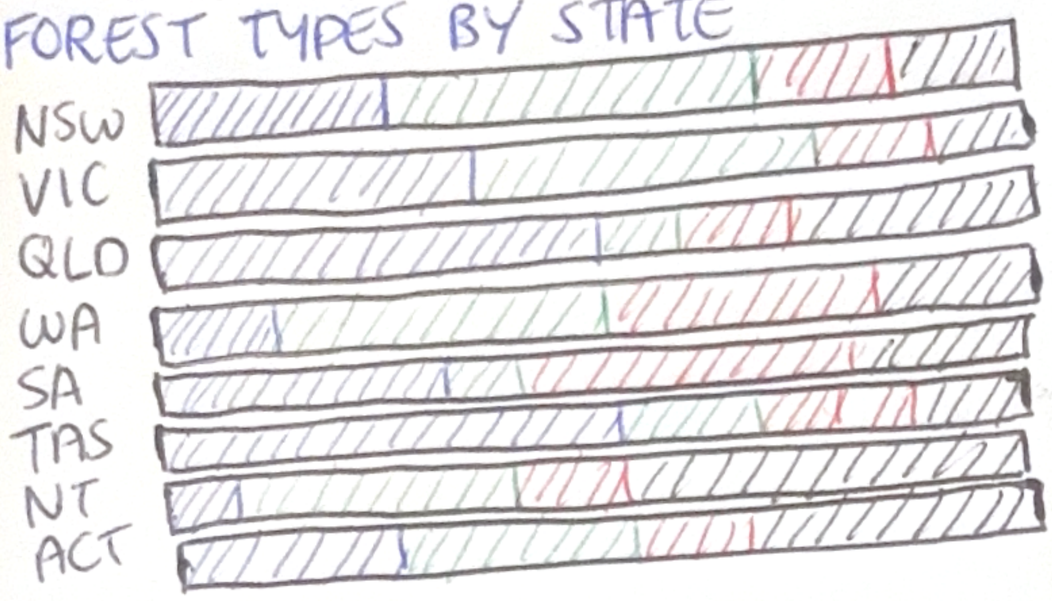

- Eucalypt Forest
- Acacia Forest
- Callitris Forest
- Rainforest
- Other Native Forest

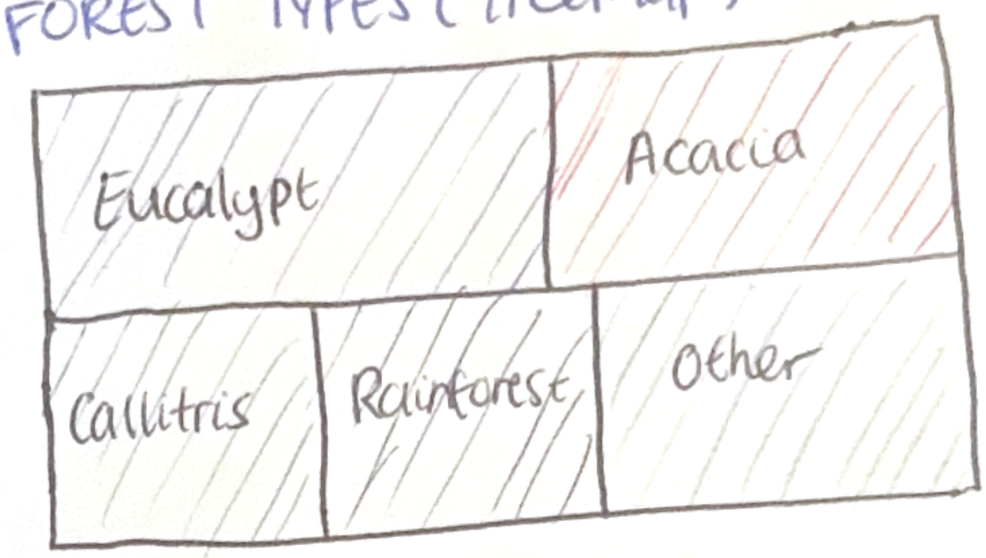

FOREST AREA BY STATE

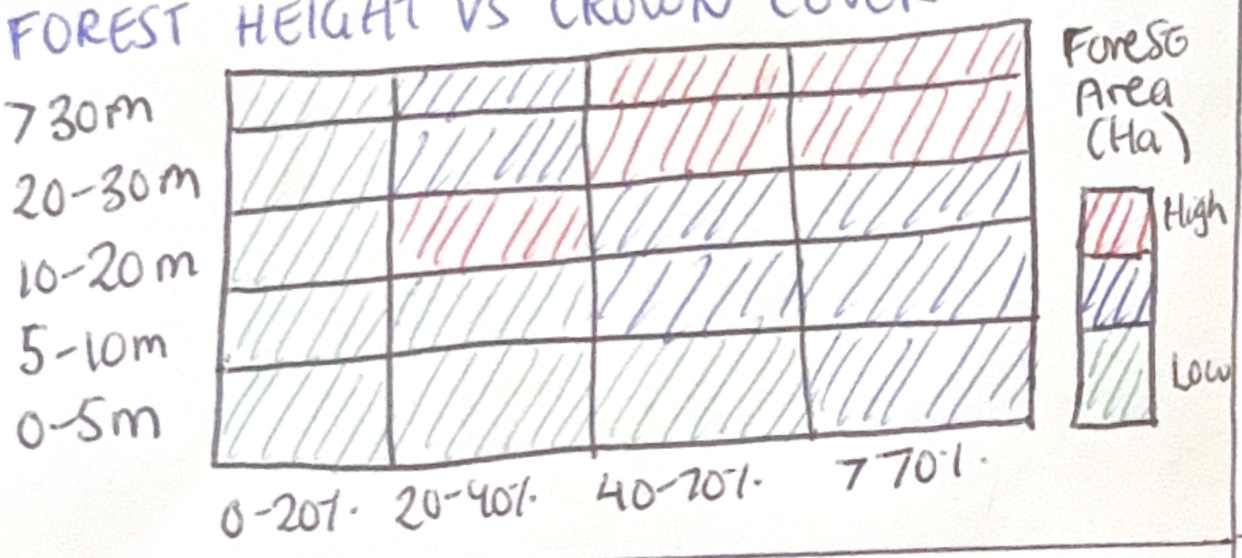

FOREST TYPES BY STATE

FOREST TYPES (TreeMap)

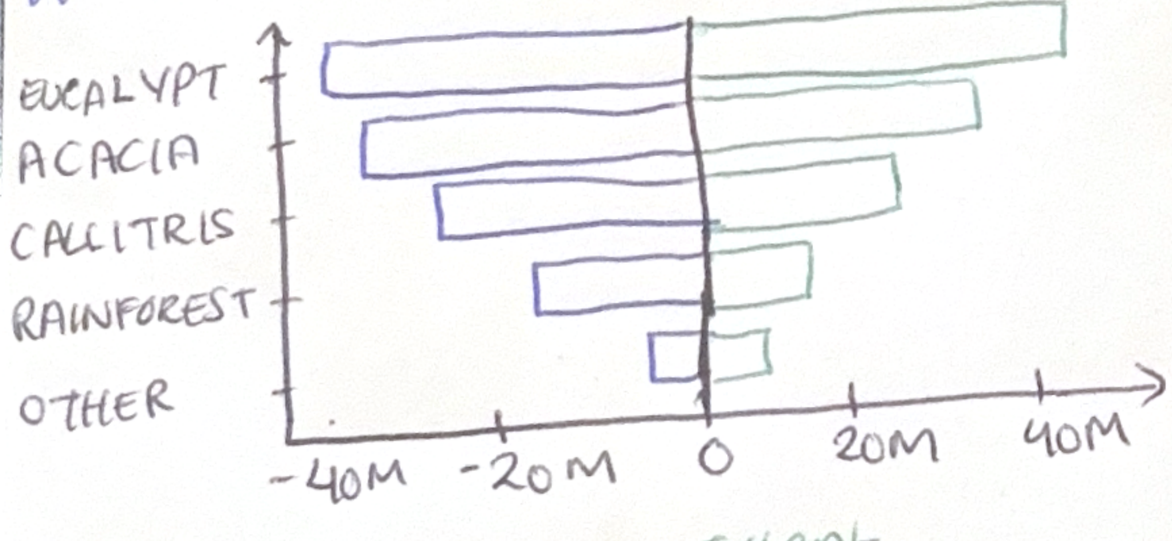

FOREST HEIGHT VS CROWN COVER

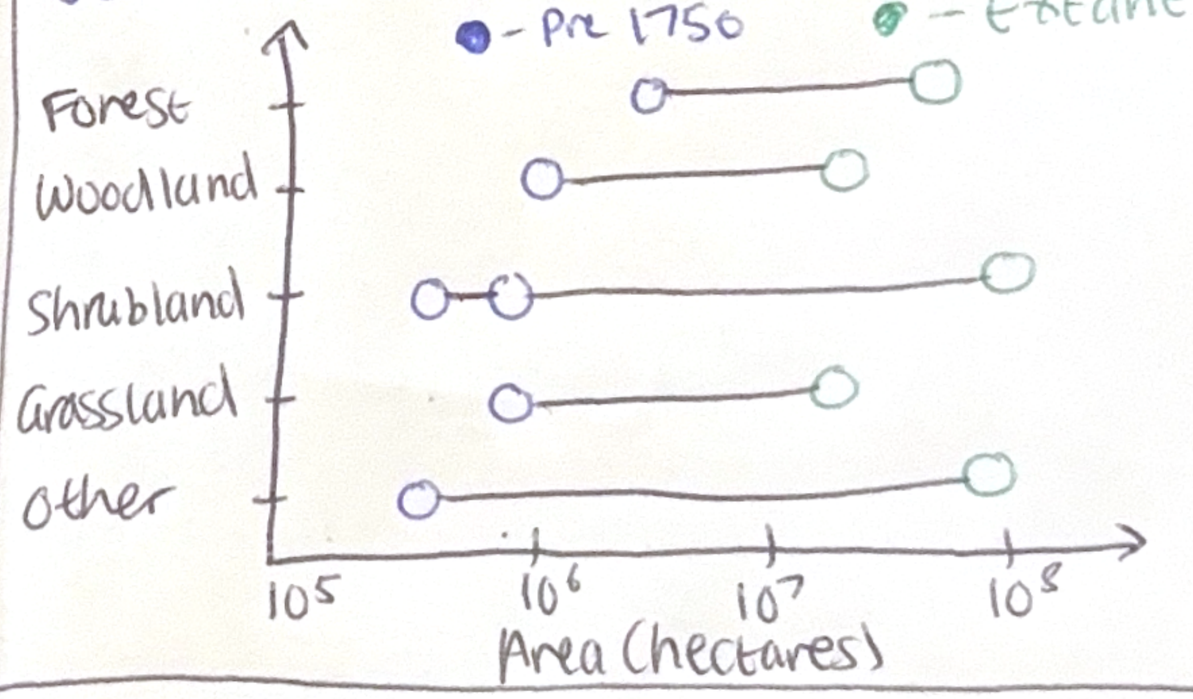

COMMERCIAL PLANTATIONS

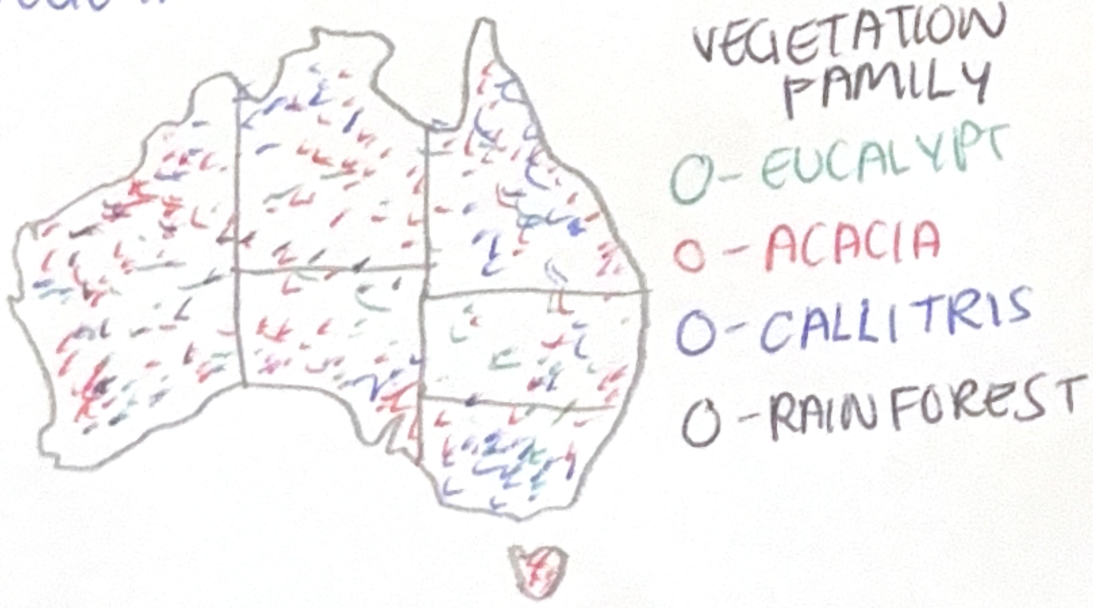

HISTORICAL VS EXTANT AREA

SELECTED OUTCOMES COMPARISON

VEGETATION LOCATIONS (DOT DENSITY)

CONCLUSION

Australia's forests are diverse but unevenly distributed, with Queensland containing the largest mapped forest area.

Thevni Kalansuriya
33115699
Studio 20